EVERY DAY

the L. & N. distributes $148,300 throughout the South for operation of its trains and up-keep of its property.

This daily distribution is made possible through the successful management of a constructive railroad which is an important factor in Southern progressive development and commercial supremacy.

Because the L. & N. realizes that its interest and the interest of the people are mutual, it co-operates in every possible manner for better farms, (the foundation of all prosperity); for better industrial conditions; for better commercial co-operation; for better educational facilities; for more cordial social relations.

Through their share in the L. & N.'s daily distribution of $148,300 many individuals and enterprises are able to realize their desire for business prosperity and personal happiness.

A considerable portion of the $7,200.00 paid daily for taxes is devoted to Southern education.

One out of every ten people derives his or her means of livelihood directly or indirectly from the railroad industry. The L. & N. operates in nine Southern states. Therefore the ability of the L. & N. to operate successfully is a matter of vital concern to Southern prosperity.

RAILROAD CO.
The Old Reliable

EVERY time the sun sets on the South-land, the L. & N. pays out $148,300 in the operation and up-keep of its line of road. It costs every day—$69,900 for wages, $47,700 for material and supplies, $23,500 for interest and rent, $7,200 for taxes.

W. H. KRUEGER

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Attorney. If nominated and elected, I promise a clean, sober, fair, business-like and impartial enforcement of the law.

In announcing my candidacy for election, I further promise to uphold the rights of the poor the same as the rich; the low as the high; of those who have no political influence the same as the influential; the country man as town-man; the Republican as the Democrat; and the black as the white.

All religious faiths will be protected alike.

To the financial affairs of the county, I will give my particular attention, in order to enable its citizens to derive the greatest possible benefits from the low tax rate.

To those who do not know me personally, I wish to say that I came to this County from Lincoln County twenty five years ago, I then being seven years old. Rockcastle County has been my home since childhood, and this is the first time that I have asked of the voters of Rockcastle County for a public office.

No political leaders, or supposed political leaders, in Mt. Vernon have either asked or urged me to make this race, but a good many country people insisted that I should. After giving it considerable thought, I have decided to submit my cause to the Democratic voters of Rockcastle County.

For seven years I have been in the practice of law, and, in addition to that I have had twelve years business experience. I feel that I am amply capable of filling the office of County Attorney.

Before August 4th I shall endeavor to see each voter, but, should I fail, I will appreciate your support.

Yours truly,

W. H. KRUEGER.

E. B. THOMPSON

I am indeed sorry that my opponent, Mr. Gentry, has seen fit to resort to newspaper gossip during this campaign. I had hoped that each and every candidate for the various offices would prove to the public generally, that they are not children, but men, big enough to deserve the confidence and support of every voter in the County.

If you remember my announcement was very brief. I was especially careful to avoid harsh terms. But it seems that the word FAILURE, as used therein, has lain heavily on my Opponent's stomach, and being unable to digest it, in the last issue of the Signal he tried to play the Buzzard.

I don't believe that any intelligent, impartial man who has read my announcement, has or can place such a construction on it's meaning as he has. Neither do I believe that his imagination is so vivid and penetrating that he has gleaned therefrom any such meaning or intent. But I do believe that he has been told this by someone, whose (Puppet) he is, or else, he has lately awakened from a four years imitation of Rip Vanwinkle and has dreamed that it would be nice if I would be foolish enough to try to defend his administration. But Edd I refuse to attempt such a colossal task. Besides, your record for the last four years is your own. The child is yours. I refuse to be guardian for such a ward. Stand by it Ed. You can't disown it. It is snakes and reptiles that create and then swallow and destroy their own creation. Be careful what you imitate.

I have so far made no charges, neither have I defended the Fiscal Court. I am not running for the position of "FISCAL COURT". But granting that the charges which you have preferred, are all true. What have you been doing? What has the people been paying you for? I thought it was your duty as the paid Attorney of the people to look after their interests. It seems to me that it is bad grace for you as a paid official of the people, to begin at this late day to notify the people, and at the same time shouting and trying to maintain your own innocent. If your statements are true; you are either guilty of criminal negligence, putrid laziness or profound ignorance.

As for my record at Frankfort, I doubt if it smells as strong of "Booze" as some of the "Blind-tigers and Booze venders" in this County, who seems to have thrived during your four years term of vigorous prosecution? And "Strict but fair enforcement of the law".

As to my being eligible I ask the voters not to become confused at the wailing of a cry baby or the noise of a Political Coward. The party is not in danger. The Ship of State is not sinking nor even leaking. Ed has just fallen over board, that's all, and is floundering in the water, screaming and trying to excite the voters to throw out a life line and save him on August 4th. He says that I am hazarding the party. Gee! Such a manifestation of Party loyalty, interest and devotion. It is almost Spiritual in its delicacy and beauty.

He suggested that the voters compare our "Private Careers". I can save you that trouble, and possible, myself some embarrassment, in the comparison, by just admitting that I am not so important as he. For if his high station in private life in the least compares with the high manner in which he carries his head, I can assure you that I will not measure up to his knees. I should think it will be a little trying for one living and enjoying such an exalted state of official and private success to climb off his "perch" for two long, hot summer months before the election, to mix and mingle with me, common and less successful ones, and occasionally, possibly condescend to engage in a few sweet words, low crooked courtesies and base spaniel fawning with some voter. I certainly congratulate you, Ed, on such a nerve. But again, such reckless conduct, on your part, will be fraught with great danger. Your successful Official and Private careers naturally had a tendency to make you cold mannered—even almost frigid. I fear that when suddenly you warm up to the voters, the sudden change of temperature may give you "Fever. Be careful Eddie Dear.

I could say lots of things concerning his record, or (lack of record), but you know the County does not furnish me with two Offices to write and work in; besides, I am busy trying to see the voters and do my best, trying to improve my "Private Career".

I am sorry that Ed has seen fit to start this newspaper "Stuff". I had rather not indulge. I am now willing to play quits. It sounds childish. I want to make a clean fight, such as all Republicans should make against each other, notwithstanding the fact that I am in possession of a super-abundant supply of ammunition, accumulated during the last four years and touching certain events in a not very remote nor forgotten past. They will make, not nice, but very interesting reading. So Ed, suit your self "Old Top" I would not restrain your ensanguined ardor nor disarrange a hair on the well kept oreole which covers your classic brow.

So "Lay on McDuff." (Bray) on Ed.

Yours very kindly,
E. B. THOMPSON.

WINCHESTER

By "J. M."

The oil fields of Estill county have certainly livened up things in Winchester. In 1916 there were, probably, 150 vacant houses bearing the signs: "for rent". There are none today and numerous new buildings are being erected. Men interested in oil have located their families here on account of good schools and many other conveniences, and use the railroads between here and Estill in looking after their business in the oil fields.

Upon inquiring it is found that among various patented power hemp breaks, only a partial success has been reached. They do the "breaking" all right but tangle up and cut the fiber in many instances. Inventors are still at work upon the problem. A big crop has been sown this year. The good prices secured for last years crop induced many to plant this season and it is believed a big crop will not lessen the price. A big raiser told the writer that there is good money in hemp at ten dollars, whereas prices have been running as high as $13.50 per hundred pounds. Some velvet for the raiser.

Many inquiries are made about C. C. Davis and family by folks here, who regret their having removed from Winchester back to Mt. Vernon and yet hope for their return to the capitol of Clark.

More acreage is now held in Kentucky petroleum operations than in any other field in the United States. Most of the leasing has been done by the largest companies in the industry, which means that the state will be given a thorough testing. Many of the large developing concerns have geologists going over the field, one concern, the Empire

Oil and Gas Co., at this time having a staff of 15 geologists at work in Kentucky. Geologists command a salary of $25 per day.

While Clark county hasn't so many candidates as Rockcastle, they are just as busy and a little more so.

The bathing season will open at Boone Beach, Boonesboro, as soon as winter breaks. This resort is going to prove one of the most popular places to be found anywhere in our commonwealth. "Uncle Billy," of Winchester is making big efforts to secure the appointment as bathing costume censor.

The eleven store rooms on Main street that were vacant last year are all occupied now, a number of them by oil supply companies.

The county force is at work completing that portion of Paris Pike that was unfinished last fall. Boone Way is routed over this road.

The men's class of the various Sunday schools are arranging for a union picnic and outing down on the river. It is an annual custom. None but men attend. They wear their old clothing. If a man is caught on the grounds with a collar and tie on, he is immediately court martialed and these ornaments thrown into the river. They are all "boys" on that day, and any member failing to kick up his heels and make a noise is looked upon with suspicion.

The writer had the pleasure of meeting Miss Bessie Taul Crkright, a writer of some note, and who is state agent for Cattrell's history, which came from the press March 15th. The work is by a teacher who was the first professor to teach Ken-

MODERN WAR AND PROHIBITION

With the declaration of War with Germany, and the enactment of the selective draft law, we have assumed obligations whose ultimate ends no man can foresee. Primarily we have now become responsible for the preparation of hundreds of thousands of young men for the stern duties and hardships of war, and, in the natural order of things they will constitute the human element available for the nation's defense for many years to come. The nation owes it to the young men who are selected for military training and service that, from the very first they shall know that the training will be carried on under circumstances above reproach.

The development of minds and bodies to meet the demand of military service in war requires not only the most modern by-gienic surroundings but the absence of every form of personal dissipation. And one who sells or gives intoxicants or drugs of any kind to young men undergoing training for the nation's defense, not only commits a crime against the individual but a treasonable act against the nation.

The experience of European nations has made it clear that to maintain a modern army in the field there must be organized industry at home. Anything that militates against this is depriving the human element of its normal energy, working under war pressure, must be combatted if it need be destroyed.

The public is far better advised today than ever before, concerning the efforts of the habitual use of intoxicants in producing criminal, insane and untrustworthy men and women and degenerate children. Prisons, asylums and public reformatories furnish continuous and abundant evidence along these lines. The increasing undisciplined Americans has been observed and noted by investigators and students for many years. This is evidence in lack of respect for parents, for the aged, for the officers of the law and for the law itself.

It has also been a uniform observation that these conditions become aggravated whenever and wherever intoxicating liquors are habitually used. Confronted with these facts we are about to undertake the creation of a large army of the young people, and to prepare it for participation in the most gigantic struggle in the history of wars.

When the army was reorganized in 1901, following the war with Spain, there was introduced in the Act, prohibitory legislation regarding the sale of wine and beer upon military reservations. There was much resentment on the part of the army at this discriminatory legislation, for while it introduced prohibition on reservations it encouraged border line saloons in surrounding territory. The aggravation was grave in states like Kansas where prohibition was a sham and a public danger, the laws being ignored in the most open and flagrant manner.

In the course of time the abolition of the sale of beer and wines—alcoholic liquors we previously barred—on military reservations, and naval regulations banished intoxicating drinks from war vessels. Modern battleships, destroyers and submarines had become too complicated to be entrusted in any part to minds beclouded with drink.
Efficiency and safety of operation like demanded the exclusion of liquor from war vessels and it is certain that if the restoration of the wine mess for the period of the war were put to a vote of naval officers it would be overwhelmingly defeated.

Observing the operations of the so called anti canteen law which stopped the sale of wine and beer at post exchanges or canteens, it was found that for a time the offenses involving drunkenness increased at army posts located in territory where saloons were permitted to exist. This was credited to the fact that men went to considerable distance from barracks for liquor, and not expecting to repeat the trip soon indulged in too much for their own good. The statistics of disciplinary action through a number of years seemed to establish that more than fifty per cent of the cases of desertion and absence without leave were due to drunkenness.

While the current returns of the internal revenue bureau of the treasury make it appear that the income from the manufacture of beer and liquors has steadily increased, there can be no question that the temperance and total abstinence campaigns of the past few years have brought about a marked change in American life. It is no longer fashionable to serve wines and liquors in the lavish way which obtained in former years. That temperance has won a lasting victory is attested by the large increase in territory covered by prohibition laws, and in the drastic regulations governing the employment of men in dangerous occupations, where individuals may be and often are responsible for the lives of others. If this applies in the operations of railroads and great industrial establishments, how much more should it apply in the cases of the officers and men called to the colors to uphold the honor of the nation and to defend its material interests.

Of course it is absurd to mangulate complete prohibition until, as a nation, we are prepared to abandon taxation of manufactured intoxicants. After many years observation of the efforts of drink upon our soldiers, it is the unhesitating opinion of the writer that the proceeds of governmental taxation of stills and breweries is, to say the least, no compensation for the mispent lives and stunted brains of those who are addicted to drunkenness. If it requires war time prohibition to insure an absolutely sober and dependable army we should have it, and the sooner the better.

HAS A GOOD OPINION OF CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS.
"Chamberlain's Tablets are a wonder. I never sold anything that beat them," writes F. B.
Tressey, Richmond, Ky. When troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial.

LIVINGSTON

Mrs. George Smith has returned from Corbin, where she has been visiting relatives.—Morris Cottongim and Miss Ruth Painter were in East Bernstadt, Sunday.— James Painter of Lebanon Junction, came down Sunday, and his mother, Mrs. Geo. Painter, accompanied him home.—Mrs. Jane Owens, of Pineville, is here visiting relatives.—W. H. Carmichael, of Mt. Vernon, candidate for jailer, was in town a few days ago and said his outlook for the place was O. K.—Sheriff Cam Mullins, Judge G. M. Ballard, Atty E. R. Gentry, of Mt. Vernon, were here Wednesday.—There will be a public meeting Saturday evening at the school house here at 7:30 p. m., in the interest of the good roads movement. Addresses will be made by Prof. Herndon of Berea, and others, on the route selected for the pike up Rockcastle river there is a bridge to build over Roundstone creek, and Berea has offered to help finance the affair if Livingston will give so much.
Seven hundred dollars has already been subscribed by the citizens here.—Today, May 30th, is Decoration Day and friends of the departed will meet at the cemetery all over the country and decorate the graves of their friends and relatives buried there, and while doing this we will let our minds wander across the Atlantic and wish we could even place some flowers on the graves of the poor Belgians that have been murdered in cold blood by the Germans.—J. H. Owens, father of the writer, was in Livingston for the first time in many months, being compelled to go on crutches.—Dr. R. G. Webb has sold his saddle horse and is now using his Ford in his large practice.
Doc says it is much better than the old fashioned horse back way, and the pike will make it much better sailing.—J. M. Foure, the blind man, took a contract from the Baptist people to bring down a dwelling house that they had purchased some time ago for the purpose of making their lot larger and to put up other buildings.

Foure has the building torn down and he and a boy did it, so he might be termed the blind house carpenter. A little grit helps considerable.—T. M. Dees has been confined to his room for some time, but we are proud to learn that he is much better.—John Cockrell, who has been on the sick list for a few days, is in Par-ky, this week.—D. B. Rambo was in Danville, Monday, on business.
—Miss Maranda Tate, of Brodhead, was here latter part of last between trains.—W. M. Baker has moved his family back to Mt Vernon.—W. G. Nicolson is treating the restaurant and Eight Cables Hotel to a new coat of paint.—That portion of the Masonic bick building, which was a store room, and where the bank will be opened June 4th, is undergoing repairs.
Mrs. George Reynolds, of Corbin has returned home after a few days with her sister, Mrs. B. C.
Mullins, of this place.—J. P. E.
Drummond has entered the editorial world and now is editing the Livingston Bulletin, and to d him justice he is doing exceedingly well, and is getting out an amusing and interesting paper.— Miss Georgia McDaniels is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charley Carpenter, of Lebanon, Ky.—Mrs.
Roy Fenwick and children, after a few days visit with relatives at Lebanon, Ky., have returned home.—Miss Georgia McFerror, of Mt. Vernon, was in our town Sunday.—J. A. Oliver, of Winchester, was with our merchants Tuesday.—We were amused the other day at a man telling who was the happiest man living and this was the way he explained it.
He said it was the man that had six fiddles, ten children, thirteen bonds a deaf and dumb mother-in-law, and a moonshine still that the government could not find

Pains, Dizzy Spells

Mrs. G. P. Cartwright, of Whitwell, Tenn., writes:
"I suffered with bearing-down pains. The dizzy spells got so bad that when I would start to walk, I would just pretty nearly fall. Was very much run-down. I told my husband I thought Cardui would help me. . .
He got me a bottle. . . It helped me so much that he got me another bottle.
I got a whole lot better.
The dizzy spells and the bearing-down pains . . . left me entirely."

If you are weak and run-down, or suffer from womanly pains,

as being of great value in the troubles from which only women suffer. The enthusiastic praise of the thousands of women who have been helped by Cardui in its past 40 years of successful use should assure you of its genuine merit, and convince you that it would be worth

Now beat this and we will put up or shut up.—After a long dr-spell in this locality the drought has been broken and rain has been falling in copious quantities to the great satisfaction of the farmers and gardeners in this section.—Mrs. W. M. Owens, of Burr-was in our town latter part of last week.—Marshal W. N. Riggs has had some teams working on High street this week and they are making a great improvement.— Mr. and Mrs. Robert Griffin are spending a few days with relatives in London this week.—S. C.
Franklin, the L. & N. watch inspector, was in our town Tuesday.— Any one doubting the corn vari-told by our friend, James Maret, we will refer them to S. C. Franklin, who has a life size photo of the corn and he said he was going to place them in the window of his shop where everyone passing could look at them. We are happy to inform the public that

SOUR STOMACH.

This is a mild form indigestion.
It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatsoever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.

BRODHEAD

For fear our Livingston friend will continue to think that we are too proud to fight, or that he bluffed us with the poetry that some body else composed, we will try to write a few items that has taken place since our last letter. About two weeks ago Mrs. C. H. Smith, died at the home of her husband's parents, near Conway, after a short illness, leaving a two days old baby boy. Mrs. Smith was before her marriage Miss Leavey Cherry, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John T. Cherry, a sister of J. Thos. Cherry, a prominent merchant of Crab Orchard. As soon as Mr. Cherry was notified of her death he, with Postmaster Granville Owens, went to the residence of Mr. Smith and made immediate preparations for the burial, which took place at the Baptist church cemetery the following day after short services by Eld. L. N. Bowling, of the Christian church. A number of years ago the late John Cherry moved to this county and lived here until his death some two or three years ago. Of a family of thirteen, J. Thos. Cherry, is the only surviving member, his father, mother and then brothers and sisters are dead. The infant child of Mrs. Smith died a few days after the death of its mother.

Since our last letter, Clarence Roberts, youngest son of Mrs. Sallie Roberts, of Gum Sulphur, and Miss Essie Haney, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. I. J. Haney, of Middlesburg, Casey county, were married at Stanford. Miss Haney is a niece of Mrs. Mary Albright, of this place. These are splendid young people and we join their many friends in wishing them continued pleasure thru life.

Mr. and Mrs. U. B. Cass have moved to the Quail section, and are making their home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cummins. W. A. Carson is painting at Crab Orchard this week. Mr. Carson seems to be in great demand at present, both at home and abroad. A. E. Albright recently sold a fine Jersey cow to S. B. Neveus, at Stanford, for $75.

J. R. Cass bought a nice young Jersey at Stanford for the same money. Mrs. J. W. Tate and daughter, Miss Miranda, were in Louisville last week shopping. R. L. Smith and Allen Hiatt sold thirty-one head of young cattle at Stanford, on County Court day.

Mr. Larkin Hicks looks as young to us as he did twenty five years ago. Mrs. C. A. Wheelon and children, of Lancaster, were with relatives here recently. Mrs. L. M. Brown of Memphis, Tenn., is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Frith. Mrs. A. J. Pike returned a few days ago from a two weeks visit to her son, C. R. Pike, in Corbin. Mrs. Miranda Phillips died at her home near Wil die about a week ago after a short illness. Mrs. Phillips was a sister of our J. W. Tate, and besides him is survived by her mother and two sons and two daughters.

The Junior Order of America placed a nice flag on the Graded school building here last Saturday. A number of the Juniors were here in dress parade, and after a number of speeches down town, they marched to the school building and hoisted the stars and stripes. Among the speakers were S. F. Bowman, W. R. Dickerson, A. J. Pike, and L. W. Bethurum. Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Carter, and children, went to Shelbyville the latter part of last week. The doctor returned Monday. Mrs. Carter and the children will remain there some three weeks or more. Mrs. H. L. Tharp, of Junction City, was here Sunday the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. R. Cass. Givens and Gus Carson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carson, are in Irvine painting, where work is plentiful, painters few and prices high. Misses Ella Carson and Clyde Watson were guests of Mrs. F. L. Durham during the week. The following boys, having become members of the Boys Pig Club, were given a thoroughbred Red Berkshire pig by the Citizens Bank here Saturday, May 26th: Joplin Smith and Boone Saylor, of Crab Orchard, R. F. D. No. 3; Frank Gentry, Spiro; Homer Hunt, Mareburg; and Colston Stevens, near Brodhead. Miss Elizabeth Storm, who has been teaching a private school at Stearns, is with her father, I. R. Storm, for a few weeks. S. R. Black, aged 65, a soldier in the Civil war, died at his home late Saturday. He received a small wound in the corner of one eye as a result of the explosion of a gun cap during his army career, and this wound in after years became of a cancerous nature, eating deep into his head, destroying his eye and causing him to suffer untold pain, which together with troubles incident to his age caused death. Besides his widow, he leaves several children. His remains were buried in the Methodist church cemetery Monday afternoon after services by the pastor, the Rev. A. B. Pottorf. A few days ago as the writer was walking along a certain street in a certain town I was reminded of a list of don'ts I read several years ago intended for the benefit of a young man: "Don't marry a girl who will sweep the back yard and carefully place the rubbish taken therefrom in the middle of the street, for you will find the dirt taken from the parlor floor under the cook table in the kitchen". Rubbish looks equally as well to the passer by in the yard as on the street in front of the nicely kept lawn, and if some one, other than a member of your own family should place something unsightly in front of your house, remove it, for those who notice things are sure to think you did it and will form a bad impression of you as a tidy housekeeper.

The publication of the names of the men who are to contribute Kentucky's new tax Commission is a highly gratifying proof that an earnest effort is to be made to administer the new tax system in the spirit which prompted the reform. The commission is an excellent one, and confidence is fully warranted that it will do its very important part toward making the new system what its promoters intended it to be. And no less encouraging than the selection of this commission is the choice of John Buechel as its expert adviser; the record of Mr. Buechel as City Assessor of Louisville furnished ample evidence that no better choice could have been made. The first step to put the new law into execution is decidedly a hopeful step.

CHOLERA MORBUS.

This is a very painful dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Eneyart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with cholera morbus. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave them immediate relief."

LITTLE TOM TAYLOR

Paducah, Ky., May 28.—The toll of dead and injured taken by the storm which late Sunday afternoon swept four counties of Western Kentucky continues to mount rapidly to-day as a confused mass of conflicting reports from many sources was shifted. To-night it appeared probable that the death list would approach seventy and that the list of those more or less injured would number several hundred.

Investigation to-day at Hickman, in Fulton county, and at Clinton and Bardwell, in Carlisle county, the sections most affected by the storm, revealed conditions even worse than had been indicated by earlier reports.

At Hickman a check of reports from various sources apparently estimated that the death list in Fulton county would exceed forty. These reports told of forty-two deaths in Fulton county, of which twenty two were at Bondurant, a small mill town. The list of injured is phenomenal, but it was estimated that the number would approach 200. Twenty two persons are in the hospital at Hickman, of whom seven teen are expected to die.

SUPPLY OF CASKETS EXHAUSTED

By 6 o'clock to-night thirty bodies has been brought into Hickman from outlying points to be prepared for burial. The supply of caskets in the town had been exhausted and five bodies are being held at the public library until more coffins could be secured.

At Clinton, in Hickman county, a check of the death list reported showed that five persons were killed there and that twelve others lost their lives at Cypress, a small nearby village. The list of injured in the two towns was estimated to be upward of forty.

At Bardwell, in Carlisle county three persons are known to have been killed and twenty five others more or less injured.

At Dublin, in Grave county, five persons were killed and twenty five injured. Many isolated points in the stricken district are yet to be heard from, because of the destruction of virtually all lines of communications. Reports from Ledford and Greenfield, both of which towns were reported to have been hard hit by the storm, to-night still were unavailable.

STORM'S COURSE ERRATIC.

The course of the course was erratic. Reports its course and direction even were confusing, but apparently it first struck near Dublin and passed through that town, creating havoc. Bardwell the next town in its path, suffered heavily, while much of the territory in the immediate vicinity escaped almost unscathed.

The storm then passed on to Clinton, and created havoc in the residence district, wrecking more than fifty houses. As the storm approached Hickman it apparently divided and went around the place, leaving wreck and ruin on all sides, but doing little damage in town itself beyond unroofing a few houses and putting telephone, telegraph and electric light wires out of commission.

Bondurant was next in the path of the storm, which then passed into Tennessee.

The property damage in the stormswep district was large. It has not yet been possible to estimate it. The loss about Hickman and other parts of Fulton county is expected to reach beyond $500,000. At Bardwell where the loss probably will aggregate $500,000, every business building in the town was destroyed. In and about Clinton the damage will probably reach $400,000.

No losses sustained elsewhere in the district are available, but they will be large. In Fulton county much of the cotton crop is said to have been literally stripped from the ground. The loss from cattle killed will it is said, amount to many thousand of dollars.

tucky history in a Kentucky college—the Wesleyan at Winchester. The writer is much pleased with this history especially that portion dealing with the subject of Daniel Boone and noted pioneers.

"Uncle Billy" got off the following in Winchester Courier: Col. Jimmy Maret is back home from Texas. He said he didn't get bit by any centipedes or tarantulas. Therefore he didn't have any chance to try sum of the ole Kentucky snake-bite remedy.

G. L. Waincott's soft drink manufactory, one of the largest in East of Lexington, has lately added a grape juice mixture to its product that would make Billy Bryan smack his lips over its flavor and tang.

Chief of police, McCord, poured, into the gutter, ten gallons of whiskey, which had been abandoned at depot by frightened travelers on way from Lexington to Knoxville, a few days since.

There are 300 troops training here, at the old show grounds on Jackson street.

A letter from Colorado County Texas, the writers old home, advises that a recent hail storm ruined the cotton crops and gardens all of which had to be planted again. That portion of the state certainly has it afflictions. Storms, tornadoes, floods and droughts have made numerous visits there within last few years.

Luke McLuke asks: What has become of the old tad who used to buy his spectacles at the ten cent store — If Luke would visit the blue grass, pennyrite and the stocks, he would find those old tads are yet numerous ("J. M.")

"HE LO"

Since the families of Joe Oliver and C. C. Davis have moved from Winchester the Mt. Vernon colony has been reduced to five members, Dr. Myers and family and the writer. The Olivers are now located at Berea, a mighty good place, but the family likes the capital of Clark so well that the latter place will have them for citizens again next fall.

Clark county has a Rabbit town. It is reported that Col. Belgian Hare is the police judge; White Bunny the marshal; Wolly Cottontail, Clerk; Texas Jack, town attorney, with a rabbit of good staying qualities for calaboose station keeper where members of rabbitdom are confined after filling up on cabbage juice, pea vines and apple tree barks. Interest in the primary election is waxing warm in the bunny city. There are two factions in the Jack Rabbit tribe and all sorts of accusations are flying in the air. One faction claims the other is again progress and good roads and that some of the candidates have bolted the regular ticket in times gone by. One candidate of the swamp tribe, charged with having voted in Possomville beyond the town limits last year, and is ineligible to even run for dog-pelter. Several in their cards of an announcement claim to be the original, blown in the battle and a yard wide, never scratched a ticket sort of rabbits and promise faithfully to support the nominee, "scusin'" nothing, no matter what is nominated. Others in the races say, privately, they will be ding-batted if they propose to support some of the r opponents, on account of a yellow streak of fur that they carry around on their backs. There will be a hot old time in Rabbit town recently.

The writer is pleasantly located with State Engineer, Will P. Caldwell, former county engineer of Boyle County. Office is located on second floor of Fraternity building near court house.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

It has been reported that I am opposed to Cam Mullins, our present sheriff, being the Republican nominee for County Judge. I would not make a statement in writing but for the fact that I am his nephew, Mr. Mullins having married my aunt. I am not opposed to him and have never told any person that I was opposed to him. In fact I am for him now and have been for him all the time. I have supported him in every race he has made, for the reason that I believe he would make an honest, efficient and capable officer. I favor his nomination and election for County Judge, as I know that he will use his best efforts to relieve the taxpayers of the present high rate of taxation and remove from their shoulders the heavy indebtedness now against the county. I not only favor his nomination, but am calling upon the republicans of Rockcastle County to unite with me in furthering his interest as a candidate, believing that it is in the best interest of the Republican party to nominate him. He has a clean personal and political record, is a sober man and has always supported the cause of the Republican party.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is, by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists 75c. E. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Pale Faced Women Take Phosphates to Make Rosy Cheeks and Beautiful Forms.
Men Need Phosphates to Make Strong, Healthy, Vigorous Bodies.

Athletes increase their strength, energy and endurance 200 per cent or more by simply taking a few weeks treatment of Argo-Phosphate.

Atlanta, Ga. Dr. F. A. Jackson says that Phosphates are just as essential to any man or woman who tires easily, is nervous, irritable, unable to work, or looks haggard and pale to make a strong, robust, vigorous healthy body, as they are to cotton to make it grow. The lack of Phosphates is the cause of all enemic conditions and the administration of 5 grain Argo Phosphate tablets will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, care worn men and women 300 per cent in two or three weeks time in many instances, and their continued use will build up the whole nervous system, and give new life, vim, vigor and vitality to the whole body. I always prescribe Argo Phosphates to patients who are pale and colorless and it is surprising to see how quickly a few weeks treatment will transform a pale face to a rosy cheeked beauty. There can be no rosy cheeked, healthy, beautiful women, without their system is sufficiently supplied with Phosphates. In recent interviews with physicians on the grave and serious consequences of a deficiency of Phosphates in the blood of American men and women, I have strongly emphasized the fact that doctors should prescribe more phosphates in the form of Argo Phosphate for weak, worn out, haggard looking men and women. When the skin is pale and flesh flabby, it is a sign of
